Did You Know?

It's possible to regulate how company shares change hands.

The last thing you want for your company is to find control in the hands of an incapable leader. That's why it's important to have a Shareholders Agreement.

If your business is incorporating, or if you would like to protect your current shareholders, call Brimage Law Group. Our experienced lawyers will custom-tailor an agreement that keeps the unique needs and interests of your business and your shareholders in mind.

Keep control of your company where it belongs.
